

Whether by road or rail, Rhyl and Prestatyn are within easy reach. The A55 Expressway has direct links to the M56 and M6 motorway network, and both have National bus terminals.

Rhyl and Prestatyn stations are on the mainline Euston to Holyhead rail network - making connections with Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham and South Wales, while Manchester and Liverpool airports are both less than an hour's drive away.

For train times and fares, please contact National Rail Enquiries on 08457 484950

it's so easy to get here!

To find out more about Rhyl and Prestatyn or to book your holiday, call:

Rhyl Tourist Information Centre

The Village, West Promenade, Rhyl, Denbighshire LL18 1HZ
tel: 01745 344515/355068

Prestatyn Tourist Information Centre

The Offa's Dyke Interpretation Centre, Central Beach, Prestatyn, Denbighshire LL19 7EY
tel: 01745 889092 (summer only)

email: rhyl.tic@denbighshire.gov.uk
website: www.rhyl-prestatyn.co.uk

For information to enable visitors with special needs to make the most of their stay, please contact one of our Tourist Information Centres.